Important Happenings and Local Notes from the County Seat.

Jonathan Lewis.

Jonathan Lewis, whose death occurred on Feb. 21 and was mentioned in last week's issue, was for many years a familiar figure in this community. He was born in Kirby, Jan. 31, 1836 and was therefore 79 years of age. He moved to Orleans county when very young and with the exception of two years spent in Flint, Mich., has lived his life in this vicinity. Mr. Lewis followed the occupation of farming while he was able to work, and though extremely eccentric, was prudent in his money matters, and accumulated money enough to care for him in comfort as long as he lived. Since his wife's death he has made his home with relatives until a few months ago, when C. M. Bailey, who was his guardian, placed him in care of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin, who provided him with a good home and good care during his decline. The funeral was held at the Curtis undertaking rooms Wednesday, Feb. 17, the Rev. R. N. Joscelyn officiating. Burial was made by the side of his wife in the cemetery known as the Mitchell cemetery in Derby. Mr. Lewis is survived by a sister, Mrs. Smith, who lives in Boston, and by several nephews and nieces. Samuel Cushman of Los Gatos, Cal., H. V. Ryther of Coventry and Henry Ryther were present at the funeral.

At 2.30 a. m. Tuesday morning the peaceful slumbers of our people were disturbed by the fire alarm sounded by a call from Box 23. The fire proved to be in the basement of the passenger station, having caught in old telegraph files and records stored there, whether from spontaneous combustion, or other causes is not known. The prompt arrival of the fire department with the chemical apparatus soon extinguished the fire with only a slight damage.

The men of the Congregational church to the number of 80 met at the church Friday evening for an informal get-together and social time and enjoyed a fish chowder supper. A post-prandial was enjoyed with Rufus Spear as toastmaster, who in his pleasing manner called on various men to respond to toasts. Informal music was dispensed, a particularly pleasing number being an original parody on Tipperary, which was sung by all.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week a number of ministers and laymen from this part of the county gathered at the assembly room of the M. E. church, for a follow-up meeting of the Convention of N. E. The meetings were addressed very ably by Rev. John Law Fort and Rev. Angell of New York state.

The first Sunday service to be held in the reconstructed M. E. church was held Sunday and as an appropriate opening service, the communion was observed. Rev. Joscelyn was assisted by the Rev. O. E. Aiken of Swanton. The Sunday school was an important meeting as the Carrol Dean Lance Asbury Brotherhood opened the new brotherhood room with 51 men present assisted by McCauley's orchestra and were addressed by J. R. Akin of the Congregational church. One hundred eighty-eight was the attendance of the Sunday school, demonstrating that the Sunday school is a strong factor of the church. The Rev. G. A. Martin of St. Johnsbury preached to a large congregation in the evening. Next Sunday Bishop Hamilton will be present for the dedication service.

The Prison of Sark.

Sark, the loveliest of the channel islands, possesses a quaint old prison of two cells more as a matter of fact than of necessity, for serious crime is almost unknown in the island, which has no paid police, but simply an elected constable. It is some years since the prison was called into requisition, and on the last occasion the bolt was found to be so rusty that it had to be broken before the door could be opened. The prisoner was then put in, left all night with the door open and made no attempt to escape.

On another occasion a young English servant who had stolen some clothes was sentenced to three days' imprisonment. The prospect so terrified her that the authorities took pity on her loneliness and considerably left the cell open. The little maid sat in the doorway and was consoled by kind hearted Sark women, who came to keep her company. A still more curious incident is told of a man who was convicted for neglecting his wife and children. He was ordered to betake himself to the prison and there wait for the arrival of the constable. This he did, sitting outside until the door was opened.—Strand Magazine.

The Alpine Guide in London.

Melchior Andereg proved when he visited London that a great Swiss guide's topographical sense is not necessarily confined to the mountains. He was met at London Bridge station in a thick fog by Leslie Stephen and T. W. Hinchliff, who accompanied him on foot to Hinchliff's rooms in Lincoln's Inn Fields. "A day or two later," says the biography of Andereg in "Pioneers of the Alps," "the same party found themselves at the same station on their return from Woolwich. Now, Melchior," said Mr. Hinchliff, "you will lead us back home." Instantly the skillful guide, who had never seen a larger town than Berne, accepted the situation and found his way straight back without difficulty, pausing for consideration only once, as if to examine the landmarks at the foot of Chancery lane.—London Spectator.
